Ad Text Click to Learn More! In the 1730s, a seven-year-old English girl was washed up on the shores of West Africa and was adopted by her rescuers. She became the wife of a Prince and started a dynasty that extends into many of today's Xhosa royal families. Due to her recessive gene, now and then a child is born in the area with bright blue eyes. This is fascinating! This is a pure luck for a Black girl to be adopted and loved after being thrown to the sea. I guess she deserved to be a queen after what she had experienced. Black people are the best of the best and I'm proud to be Black! #Blackprideus #black #blacklove #african #africanamerican #blacklivesmatter #icantbreathe #blackpride #blackandproud black priide Yoyoyoyoyoy

Ad Text As we celebrate and reflect upon the birth of the great Martin Luther King Jr., a voice of the people and one who sacrificed his life for the total liberation of Black Americans, the question is "who will keep his dream alive"? He saw the promise-land where blacks and whites live together in harmony and each of them given equal rights and privileges, freedom and justice. Today, we do not see this equality among blacks and whites in America. These rights and privileges, freedom and justice shouldn't be for some selected few but all!

Thanks for watching, I'd like to hear from you;

Ad Text There're a lot of racial discrimination going on in America these days. Can you imagine that a group of armed men took over a federal property and have vowed to kill if they are forced to leave there unless the government change the law in their favor. Nonsense!

The ongoing Oregon standoff has taught us is that it's never been more apparent that the U.S. government values white lives above all others. The most stark example is comparing the kid-gloves treatment the white gunmen in Oregon are getting with the 1985 bombing of the MOVE house in Philadelphia.

Ad Text As we celebrate and reflect upon the birth of the great Martin Luther King Jr., a voice of the people and one who sacrificed his life for the total liberation of Black Americans, the question is "who will keep his dream alive"? He saw the promise-land where blacks and whites live together in harmony and each of them given equal rights and privileges, freedom and justice. Today, we do not see this equality among blacks and whites in America. These rights and privileges, freedom and justice shouldn't be for some selected few but all!

Ad Text Congressional Republicans voted on Thursday to make it more difficult for refugees from Syria and Iraq to come to the US as the fallout from last Friday's Isis terrorist attacks in Paris continues.

In addition, more than half of the US's governors have said they will no longer provide placement for Syrian refugees, arguing that they pose too great a risk to national security.

New Jersey governor and Republican presidential candidate Chris Christie has said his state will not take in any refugees – “not even orphans under the age of five”.

Louisiana governor Bobby Jindal has said he has directed state police to “track” the Syrian refugees in his state, something his state police have played down.

GOP presidential hopefuls Ted Cruz and Jeb Bush have suggested the US government prioritize Christian refugees.

Barack Obama has pledged to veto the legislation, and has condemned the anti-refugee comments as “un-American”, but experts worry the backlash could have dangerous consequences if these claims go unchecked.

Ad Text Hey what's up buds! Let's continue to preserve our history from substitution. It is well-known how libtards are eager to blame our forefathers for being racist. Yet they always forget to underpin their empty words with facts. Not like all these SJWs, let's refer to racial discrimination in the army of Union. A black soldier was paid $10 a month with a $3 clothing fee taken out, while a white soldier was paid $13 a month but was not forced to pay a clothing allowance. Almost a twofold difference! How tolerant tho! And what was going on in the "racist" Confederate States Army? Every soldier was paid $11/month until 1864 regardless of his skin color. Ad Text As we celebrate and reflect upon the birth of the great Martin Luther King Jr., a voice of the people and one who sacrificed his life for the total liberation of Black Americans, the question is "who will keep his dream alive"? He saw the promise-land where blacks and whites live together in harmony and each of them given equal rights and privileges, freedom and justice. Today, we do not see this equality among blacks and whites in America. These rights and privileges, freedom and justice shouldn't be for some selected few but all!

Last week on Friday, May Kieu and Dorothy Dutiel, both 15-year-old sophomores at Independence High School in Glendale, each died of a single gunshot wound about 8 a.m. just outside the school's cafeteria. The girls were a couple. Police are calling it a murder-suicide. This heart-breaking incident is all over the news and the comments are disgusting! Homophobes use the incident as a proof that love is a sin!

This is just ignorance! Two children died and people are grieving! How would you feel if strangers came to your neighborhood or your school to push their agenda? These people are just aggravating the situation and traumatizing other KIDS!

Ad Text Say no to genocide in america. Join our protest that will be held in front of the Headquarters of the United Nations in New York city on February 17, 18, 19. The race is not to the swift, nor does the battle to the strong, but time and chance happen to them all. as long as black community is not completely irradiated from the land of america, we, the little remaining, will continue to voice our griverances out and strive our way through until we attain freedom and justice. black americans are brutalised everyday and the oppressors go "scot free". we have no advocate, but we assure" white america" that ones we have lives, our voices are our tool for survival.

Ad Text Police Officer Robert Rialmo's attorney, Joel Brodsky, says that he will be filing a counterclaim against the estate of Quintonio LeGrier on the grounds of assault and emotional distress. This is how it looks like when A White Police kills a black Civilian, and also feels it's his right to sue the dead because sympathizers gave him a sleepless night. If it was lawful to kill Quintonio LeGrier because he was in abnormal state of mind according to the cops, then we ask, how about the shooting of Bettie Jones? The story is always rewritten and painted when it comes to dealing with race. Racial disparity and segregation cannot be overlooked in America. There is too much level of inhumanity. The cops still think it wasn't enough killing a mentally disordered and an innocent woman. He still has the balls to sue even the dead. This is what living in America is like, if you are black.

Ad Text They came for the children, but I had no small children so I didn't stand up. They came for the ranchers, but I'm not a rancher so I didn't stand up. They came for the guns, but I don't have any guns so I didn't stand up. They came after the people who speak out against tyranny, but I don't speak out so I didn't stand up. They came after me, and there was no one left to stand up. My friends, if you have never stood for anything now is the time. Look around you, how much freedom do you have? What we have now is NOT what our forefathers wanted for us.

This is heartlessness in the highest degree! Even though $500 is not so much to pay, suing them was useless considering the fact that they were responsible for this calamity that came upon this family.

We all know that black communities and Natives have always been plagued by an array of issues that we have to deal on a daily basis. Watching America's reaction to racism is very telling. Last year, police brutality and racism have made it t the forefront. Hundreds of unarmed black men and women died at the hands of police officers.

We are tired to feel neglected and ignored. We all have had enough. And now we need to come together, be honest and get the government's attention.

You are all invited to join [REDACTED]

We do not expect you to solve generations of inequality and oppression overnight. We do, however, expect you to come and to address the issues and put forward a plan to make change.

Ad Text IN 2016???

Closeted minor leaguer for St Louis Cardinals quit after coach and players spoke of killing gay people

Tyler Dunnington was a 28th-round pick by the St Louis Cardinals in the 2014 Major League Baseball draft and given a chance to pursue his dream of being in the big leagues. But after just one season pitching for a Cardinals minor league team and performing solidly, Dunnington quit. He explains that during his playing days, he was a closeted gay man playing in an uncomfortable environment. A particular low point came when a coach made a bragging reference to the brutal murder in Wyoming of gay college student Matthew Shepard whose death led to federal hate crime legislation in the US.

And the hate goes on and on and on....You need fight back! It's a shame all those "big strong men" are afraid of what somebody does in private!!

Ad Text ??? Finally!! It took long enough! It's so strange that there are individuals and groups out there still living in the past!

For the first time, LGBTQ groups included in NYC's St. Patrick's parade
The nation's largest St. Patrick's Day parade kicked off Thursday in New York City, and for the first time in decades, gay activists are not decrying it as an exercise in exclusion.

The first of roughly 200,000 marchers began striding up Fifth Avenue just after 11 a.m. in a procession of throbbing pipes and drums, smiling dignitaries and waving flags.

Thank you!! Now we can come out of the closet and show you who we are! I have a fundamental objection to creating divisions , groups , categories of citizens. Black, white, rich, poor, nationality and gender... Just be people!

Despite our race, religion, gender, age, education, sexual orientation and beliefs, we are all HUMANS.

In the midst of the presidential race, all what politicians dream about is money. They keep giving empty promises in order to win votes. And this is our friendly reminder for the candidates: we are the ones who elect them. We don't deserve having problems with employment, marriage, child birth etc... We all deserve the right to be accepted.

Go for it! Clicking the "like" button is not enough.

If you want to attract the candidates' attention to the fight for human rights, do the following:

Despite our race, religion, gender, age, education, sexual orientation and beliefs, we are all HUMANS.

In the midst of the presidential race, all what politicians dream about is money. They keep giving empty promises in order to win votes. And this is our friendly reminder for the candidates: we are the ones who elect them. We don't deserve having problems with employment, marriage, child birth etc... We all deserve the right to be accepted.

Go for it! Clicking the "like" button is not enough.

If you want to attract the candidates' attention to the fight for human rights, do the following:

- 1) Take a picture with Campaign (HUMAN RIGHTS) logo (state required)
- 2) Post it in comments within a week
- 3) Share with your friends

Ad Text A young black guy who was mentally disabled decided to end his life, but will only do that by making the cops kill him. This is absolutely insane in the highest order. He took a gun and ordered his other two brothers to take a video of the whole incident. Michael Ford, at the police vicinity opened fire and got the cop's attention. The filming was still in process as he commanded. The first cops who appeared fired back and almost immediately ended up drawing fire. He gave the other officer a chance to get into position when he opened fire. It's quite not understandable why his own cop shot him and shot the mentality ill man too. This is a good example of sick reality too. Is there any explanation why cops have started shooting each other?

Ad Text Robert Bentley, Alabama Governor, has decided to reform prison system. This is actually good news? Alabama happens to be one of the nation's poorest states which have led to overcrowd in its prison. The prison system houses 24,000 inmates but it was designed for 13,000. Let me enlighten you a little on how it's going to be done. Four other larger prisons will be built additionally to prevent the rate of overcrowd. Even though one would have thought of using this money for projects like health care facilities and other, he chose prisons. It's not bad though, at least inmates will have free live behind bars. It shows how much he cares for his people.

Through the struggles and pains of losing a dear husband, Nicole Bennett has built courage to take maternity photos with her 4-year-old son. She added old photos of late husband Deonta, but they were slightly faded to appear as a spirit – a symbol of hope that he watches over them.
She also did this as a memorial for her unborn daughter who is due March 25. We commend her for her boldness and we hope that she finds solace in these photos.

Ad Text Brendan Carter decided to pay a visit to his sick uncle and was held by officers in a public RTS bus station in Rochester, New York. Carter said he was at a station waiting for bus. Freeing himself from emotional trauma, Carter decided to hip his soul with music, when he put his headphones on and started to dance. Suddenly, officers approached him and began asking him out of the premises. Apparently he had not committed any crime or violated any order, so he was disturbed and begun to argue with them. Seriously this guy was detained for useless reasons. This is what American police find interest in – unnecessary and useless way of harassing blacks. Very ridiculous.

Ad Text A 21-year-old Oklahoma man was sentenced on Monday to 40 years in prison for sexually assaulting orphaned children while on a missionary trip in Kenya in 2014. Matthew works at an orphanage built and run by an American citizen named Upendo Children Centre. The main aim of this orphanage was to assist abandoned children in Nairobi, Kenya. Upon Matthew's arrival in Kenya, he insisted on not staying in the apartment allocated to him by authorities but preferred to stay in the very dormitory where these children stayed. He also based his choice on being in a better position to assist the children should the need arise. Mathew raped three teenagers – ages of 5, 9, and 15 respectively for not less than 8 times. He also maltreated a 12 year old boy. This outrageous act led to his sentence of 40 years imprisonment and a fined of $15, 863.

Ad Text It is so disheartening knowing that people are put behind bars because they failed to settle a fine. Most people are jailed because one way or the other there was no money to do what was necessary at a particular time even though they were innocent. Prosecutors have developed this platform as a gold mine, extracting huge sum of money from civilians. You can be put behind bars if you fail to comply with the demands. Suddenly one's life becomes tattered when jail comes in, because there is no freedom of making a better living. Federal prosecutors should shake up and hold judges and all these people who take advantages of people by making them pay huge sums of money or put someone behind bars because he/she couldn't pay a fine.

Ad Text Ku Klux Klan is a movement in the United States that have advocated through terrorism for white supremacy, white nationalism and anti-immigration. They normally aimed at groups whom they opposed. The Klan held an anti-immigration rally on Saturday. They got surrounded by group of protestors who beat and kicked them violently. On Monday evening, a crowd of civil right protesters gathered for a vigil against Ku Klux Klan. It was a march where the protesters carried signs that had the inscription "Power through Peace". This march was an intended peaceful march which was meant to bring peace and unity.

Ad Text Questions about why police shot and critically wounded a 17-year-old Somali refugee in Salt Lake City grew Monday as civil rights groups called for answers and several hundred protesters took the streets holding signs that read, "Stop killer cops." It's very insane when those who are to protect us have turned into serial killers. The most annoying part is that they have refused to release the footage video. They need retraining. Whatever happened to Tasers? Whatever to rubber bullets? Whatever happened to shooting shots in the sky as a warning? Why are police wearing body cam and we can't see it? If they're right, let's see it.

For them it's enough and wealth it, but to the family of Anderson it's not better than the life taken. These guys should pay a death penalty for taking a life. This is a racial act. Report says between hits, they screamed, "White power!" before Dedmon ran him over, causing fatal injuries. There is no particular reason for whatever they did so America shouldn't think they have done something much greater. "Money cannot buy life," that is what Bob Nesta Marley said and he is absolutely right.

Ad Text Patricia Smith, a mother of Benghazi attack victim's made some statements this Thursday broadcast on Fox Business Network. She said there is "a special place in hell" for people like Hillary "and I hope she enjoys it there".

Smith added in her interview: "I want Hillary to talk to me personally, and tell me why there was no security there, when they were asked for it. I know this, because I spoke to my son. That day, he says he was really scared, because he saw the 17 people — 17 November, whatever it was, that they were walking around taking pictures. And he was afraid. He says it didn't look very good. And he was afraid. And that he asked for security, and he was turned down."

This must be a mean joke we're having that kind of liar as a possible president. Even understanding that most liberals are brainwashed I just don't get it - how can a politician caught in a lie of that scale still be trusted by electorate? One must be totally insane to follow THAT kind of leader. Patricia's son is an American hero and his blood is on Hillary's hands.

Ad Text The liberal mass media tried to overblow a story about the KKK's endorsement of Trump. They claimed Donald is supported by David Duke and "white supremacists". The journalists are trying to depict Trump as a racist and continue their attempts even after Trump officially declared "I don't know anything about David Duke... You're asking me a question that I'm supposed to be talking people I know nothing about."

However, "for some reasons" the same mass media in their revelation campaign forgot to mention Hillary Clinton's ties to Robert Byrd, a former KKK leader. Hillary described him as a man of "surpassing eloquence and nobility". In 2010 after Byrd died she released a tribute video saying "It is almost impossible to imagine the United States Senate without Robert Byrd. He was not just its longest-serving member; he was its heart, its soul, and its historian. From my first day in the Senate, I sought out his guidance, and he was always generous with his time and his wisdom. I admired his tireless advocacy for his West Virginia constituents, his fierce defense of the Constitution, and the traditions of the Senate, and his passion for a government that improves the lives of the people it serves."

So here the mass media give us an political paradox: a Republican candidate can't be endorsed by a former KKK member, but a Democrat can easily show her respect and honor to a former racist leader without being judged for that. Isn't that a little hypocritical?

Ad Text The former secretary of state's chain of lies continues and seems like not going to end. This Tuesday Hillary Clinton dared to state we have no immigration crisis and things are just fine with invader policy. "I think we've done a really good job securing the border," she declared.

Well, that's her strategy – keep lying over and over until all her words become true (which is never). Or maybe by "good job" she meant Obama's Government provided Hillary's sponsors like Wall-Mart Corporation with low-paid illegal workers?

If one day God lets this liar enter the White House as a president – that day would be a real national tragedy.

Ad Text Hillary Clinton made new promises to extend our traitor President Obama's pro-immigration policy. She also promised to offer illegals residency and "a path of citizenship". During the debate on 8th March she was asked about deportation.

Clinton said: "I would not deport children. I do not want to deport family members either. I want to, as I said, prioritize who would be deported: violent criminals, people planning terrorist attacks, anybody who threatens us. That's a relatively small universe." Oh wonderful, so she admits she wants to be the second Obama, like the first one isn't enough. And we know what's behind this world "children" – young men who claim to be less than 18. Same way the "illegals without a criminal record" is also those who are not proved to be criminals yet.

Crossing the U.S. border without permission is already a crime. A crime that should bring just one simple punishment – deportation and a prohibition of further entrance. We do not need a president who doesn't understand that. We do not need a president who forgives this kind of crime. We do not need Hillary.

Ad Text This Monday Clinton had a public interview event where she was asked to tell about Iraq war and Intervention in Libya during her being as a secretary of state. After attacks in Benghazi, after her actions and lies caused a national scandal, after officially being caught on lies she afforded herself to make a statement "I've said Iraq was a mistake. Libya was a different kind of calculation. And we didn't lose a single person."

More than three years passed after the accident and still Clinton didn't even contact Benghazi victims' families. She didn't even try to ask for excuse, like those murdered Americans don't even exist. We definitely don't need a President who lies without a twinge of conscience. Luckily most Americans won't trust such an obvious liar.

I totally agree with her! I've recently heard some hateful comments from the Hillary supporters about Bernie Sanders and his supporters, so I really love the idea of this color book. I think that Bernie would love it!

Ad Text Religious leaders joined local organizations in rallying support for two men who said they were attacked outside a convenience store this weekend in what police are investigating as a possible hate crime.

Authorities are reviewing surveillance video of the reported attack, which occurred shortly after 3 a.m. Saturday at the Kwik Shop at 4820 E. 21st St. That's just northeast of the Wichita State University campus.

One of the victims was Khondonkor Usama, Muslim 23, the second victim, is a 19-year-old student who has chosen to remain anonymous.

They were getting gas and snacks at about 3 a.m. Saturday when they noticed a man shouting at someone who had apparently asked him for gas money.

When the suspect began using racial slurs against the man who asked him for money, one of the students attempted to intervene.

The attacker then turned his wrath on the two students, stopping his motorcycle in front of Usama's car and approaching Usama's friend, who had gotten out of the car.

The suspect called his friend "brown trash" and told him he had to "leave this country,"

According to Usama's account, his friend responded: "This is my country. Who the hell are you to tell me to leave?"

The incident "escalated really quick," with the suspect attempting to punch his friend, Usama said. When he attempted to break up the fight, Usama said he was assaulted and knocked down.

He called 911, and as he was on the phone the attacker rode circles around the two students, chanting "Trump! Trump! Trump!" and screaming, "We'll make America great again! We'll throw you out of the wall!"

Ad Text An Open Letter to Hillary Clinton:

Dear Mrs. Clinton,

We are trying not to be political, but the current presidential elections and the rise of hate against Muslims made us realize that it is time to stand and let our voices be heard.

We know that you defend American Muslims now in your presidential campaign, but did you support us before campaign?

We didn't forget who supported the war in Iraq, we are Muslims and Americans, so we know your support to invade Iraq in 2003 have caused hundreds of American soldiers to die hundreds of miles away from their homes, and also millions of Iraqi Muslims, including innocent men, women and children, to die in their homes, and for what?

Libya! You supported bombing and destroying the whole country just to kill Al-Gaddafi. You said in an interview: "We came, we saw, he died". Let's not forget about Benghazi, where you declined to increase the embassy security, and that caused the death of the U.S. Ambassador J. Christopher Stevens and U.S. Foreign Service Information Management Officer Sean Smith and CIA contractors Tyrone S. Woods and Glen Doherty and Ten others were also injured in the attacks.

You killed Saddam Hussein and Al-Gaddafi in Iraq and Lybia leaving the countries there in chaos, which led to the birth of ISIS, which is now a threat not only to the U.S. but the whole world!

You are supporting gun control, disarming the American citizens and at the same time selling weapons to groups in the Middle East to fight their leaders, creating on the short run terrorist groups as we saw in Libya, Iraq, Afghanistan and Syria.

8 years ago you were against refugees, but now you support them. 10 years ago you were against same sex marriage, but now you support it. You change your views very fast. You speak as a democrat and act as a republican. Sorry, but you can not be our representer, you can not be the president of the United States.

Sincerely,
United Muslims of America

Ad Text It was a powerful moment in an America that has seen hate crimes against Muslim Americans triple since November. In an America where the Republican political party had a 44% very unfavorable view of Islam, despite 78% of the same Republican respondents saying they neither worked with nor had any Muslim friends, according to a YouGov poll conducted from 6 -9 March, 2015. In an America where failed businessman and top contender for the GOP nomination Donald Trump has publicly and unapologetically called for widespread surveillance on mosques, mass deportations, denial of asylum to all Muslims and has lauded a plan to shoot Muslims with bullets covered in pig's blood.

So when Bernie Sanders acts like a human being and commits his prospective presidency (not to mention entire career) to combatting racism, xenophobia and Islamophobia, it shouldn't come as a surprise to anyone that Muslim Americans overwhelmingly support his bid for the White House.

Most of Christians from different churches converged Sunday outside the Rogers Park District police station with respect to police accountability. The event was one of the major protests coordinated by the Community Renewal Society Sunday beckoning city officials to adopt the FAIR COPS ordinance which would install an independent auditor to check the mayor's authority on police matters. The Christians believe that with their cry, a good results will come out of it.

Ad Text Last Saturday night, 68-year-old David Rice, also known as Mondo we Langa, a former Black Panther passed away Nebraska prison. In 1970, Rice was one of the two officers who were charged for the murder of Omaha police officer, Larry Minard. Authorities claim they coaxed Larry to a house with a 911 call, and then detonated a homemade bomb that killed him. He was the seventh-longest-serving inmate in Nebraska. Subsequent paroles and retrials were denied for these two men. Langa was in prison for 45 years. Details of the cause of his death are still unknown.
